

INTERNSHIP OPENING

Date of issuance: 20/07/2017

Posting title:	Intern - New threats
Unit/Project:	Crime and Justice
Duty station:	Turin, Italy
Proposed duration and EoD:	Semester: Spring 2018 (January - April 2018) Minimum duration: 2 months
Deadline for applications:	20 September 2017
Reference number:	IO_Spring 2018_03_Turin

The United Nations Interregional Crime and Justice Research Institute (UNICRI) accepts a limited number of unpaid interns on an ad hoc basis. The objective of the internship programme is to enhance the educational experience of graduate and post-graduate students from diverse academic backgrounds through practical work assignments and on-the-job experience, to expose them to the work of the United Nations and to provide UNICRI with the assistance of highly qualified students specialized in various professional fields.

The intern is expected to work on a full-time basis at UNICRI premises in Turin, Italy.

UNICRI will not bear any cost for the internship and all expenses connected with it must be borne by the intern.

1. Background

UNICRI is a United Nations entity established in 1965 to support countries worldwide in preventing crime and facilitating criminal justice. UNICRI is mandated to assist intergovernmental, governmental and non-governmental organizations in formulating and implementing improved policies in the field of crime prevention and criminal justice. UNICRI's goals are:

- to advance understanding of crime-related problems;
- to foster just and efficient criminal justice systems;
- to support the respect of international instruments and other standards;
- to facilitate international law enforcement cooperation and judicial assistance.

UNICRI supports Member States' efforts to prevent and respond to organized crime in its different forms; preventing the expansion of new forms of crime through early detection; identifying new strategies to combat new threats, and rendering UNICRI a platform of reference for member states in their endeavours against crime. Main activities in this area are: countering the threat of organized crime to security and development; countering the misuse of technology; protection of fundamental rights.

2. Specific tasks to be performed

Within the framework of the UNICRI Internship Programme and under the supervision of the Programme Officer, the intern will assist in the implementation of ongoing programmes by performing the following tasks:

- Carry out research on terrorism, organized crime and related crimes (e.g. environmental crimes, human trafficking, cybercrime, counterfeiting, illicit traffics), and other topics related to the Unit activities;
- Collect and classify background information and data related to the projects;
- Contribute to the drafting of reports, speeches and power point presentations;
- Contribute to the drafting of material to be published on the UNICRI website;
- Draft correspondence and maintain files;
- Perform other duties upon request.

In addition, the intern may spend 10% of his/her time for the preparation of materials/reports on a topic of his/her choice (optional).

3. Qualifications

Education:

Applicants shall hold at least a first university degree (Bachelor or equivalent) in law, criminology, political sciences or international studies.

Applicants who have graduated with a university degree (first or second university degree, or equivalent, or higher), if selected, must commence the internship within a one-year period of graduation.

Applicants enrolled in the final academic year of a first university degree programme (Bachelor or equivalent) shall also be considered for this internship opening.

Languages:

Proficiency in both oral and written English is required.

4. Submission of applications

Applicants are required to complete application form available at:

http://www.unicri.it/institute/join\_us/jobs/internships/

Applications must indicate the Internship Opening reference number. Applications that do not quote the reference number and/or are received after the deadline will not be considered.

Applications shall be sent - preferably - via email to internship@unicri.it.

If electronic submission is not possible, a hard copy can be mailed or faxed to:

UNICRI

Internship Coordinator

Viale Maestri del Lavoro, 10

10127 Turin, Italy

Fax: +39 011 6313 368

Due to the expected high volume of applications, only short-listed candidates will be contacted for interview.