The United Nations Interregional Crime and Justice Research Institute (UNICRI) accepts a limited number of unpaid interns on an ad hoc basis. The objective of the internship programme is to enhance the educational experience of graduate and post-graduate students from diverse academic backgrounds through practical work assignments and on-the-job experience, to expose them to the work of the United Nations and to provide UNICRI with the assistance of highly qualified students specialized in various professional fields.

The intern is expected to work on a full-time basis at UNICRI premises in Turin, Italy.

UNICRI will not bear any cost for the internship and all expenses connected with it must be borne by the intern.

1. Background

UNICRI is a United Nations entity established in 1965 to support countries worldwide in preventing crime and facilitating criminal justice. UNICRI is mandated to assist intergovernmental, governmental and non-governmental organizations in formulating and implementing improved policies in the field of crime prevention and criminal justice. UNICRI's goals are:

- to advance understanding of crime-related problems;
- to foster just and efficient criminal justice systems;
- to support the respect of international instruments and other standards;
- to facilitate international law enforcement cooperation and judicial assistance.

Since 2010, UNICRI has been involved in strengthening the capabilities of countries in mitigating risks posed by chemical, biological, radiological and nuclear (CBRN) materials, whether criminal (organized crime, terrorism), natural (pandemics, natural disasters) or accidental (industrial accidents) in origin. As partner of the European Union in implementing the CBRN Risk Mitigation Centres of Excellence (CoE) Initiative, UNICRI has developed an international network of CBRN expertise composed of national focal points and teams across 48 countries in 8 regions as well as regional and international organizations. As part of its assistance to the partner countries, UNICRI facilitates the development of national action plans, comprehensive documents aimed at prioritizing actions and streamlining resources necessary for enhancement of capabilities.

2. Specific tasks to be performed

Within the framework of the UNICRI Internship Programme and under the supervision of the Monitoring and Evaluation Officer, the intern will assist the CBRN Risk Mitigation and Security Governance Programme by performing the following tasks:

- Assist in analyzing and organizing information contained in national CBRN action plans in order to facilitate monitoring of progress in implementing the plans;
- Upload information from workshop questionnaires on web-survey database and analyzing results;
- Conduct research and draft reports and other written output related to other projects the unit is engaged in;
- Perform other duties upon request.

In addition, the intern may spend 10% of his/her time for the preparation of materials/reports on a topic of his/her choice (optional).

3. Qualifications

Education:

Applicants shall hold at least a second university degree (Master's degree or equivalent) in political sciences, social sciences, history, public relations, communications or a similar field.

Applicants who have graduated with a university degree (first or second university degree, or equivalent, or higher), if selected, must commence the internship within a one-year period of graduation.

Applicants who hold a first university degree (Bachelor or equivalent) in the above listed fields and have relevant work experience shall also be considered.

Experience:

While not a requirement, previous work experience in conducting research and/or communications and public relations is an asset.

Languages:

Fluency in both English and French is required. Knowledge of Russian and Arabic is an asset.
